Character

You are a sensitive and emotional person. The hard knocks of this world have more effects on you than they have on most other people, and you lose some of the enjoyment of life in consequence. What other people say and think of you is taken by you to heart. Thus, there are a certain number of things which cause you unhappiness which, after all, are not worth troubling about. Your manner is quiet, as a rule, and this quality gives you the appearance of being strong and determined in the eyes of your fellow-men and women. It enables you to get your own way when you want it. You do not say as much as you think and while you are thinking, you are reasoning. It follows that your judgement is worth having and people will flock to you for advice. You have several excellent qualities. You are highly sympathetic, which makes you a good friend. You are loyal and patriotic and are thus a first class citizen. You are, or would be a most lovable parent. You are, or would be, everything that your partner could desire. Clearly, the good qualities of yours far outweigh the others.

Happiness And Fulfillment

You have the ability to truly enjoy yourself in the company of others. Quite cheerful and pleasant, you are not afraid to laugh and usually have an excellent sense of humor. Your mind is influenced strongly by beauty, and you may bring it prominently into your environment. Anyone who can bring beauty into his or her surroundings is more prone to happiness.

Life Style

You tend to be miserable in many ways because you are afraid to tell people how you feel about them. Thus, you build up hostility. Start immediately to say what is on your mind and you will begin to find meaningful relationships with others.

Career

You should find jobs which involve you with groups of people and where there is no pressure to meet commitments and responsibilities on a commercial level. You would find success in a career which would help people, such as group leadership.

Occupation

You are not fitted for any calling that is decidedly strenuous, nor do you care for too much responsibility. You do not mind work, in fact work agrees with you, but it must not involve a load of responsibility. While you are prepared to turn your hand to almost anything, it is very noticeable that you have a decided flair for all that is cultured and clean. In addition, you may have noticed that an occupation which brings you in contact with bright lights and a certain amount of gaiety suits you far better than one that relegates you to loneliness and quiet. As a matter of fact, your own quiet nature cannot tolerate quiet surroundings and it yearns for brightness and anything cheery.

Health

You have an abundance of vitality. You are robust and not likely to suffer much unless you overtax yourself. Just because you can burn the candle at both ends, you must not think that it is a wise thing to do. Be reasonable with yourself, do not take too much out of the bank of health, and you will have cause for congratulating yourself in later life. Illness, if it does come, usually comes unexpectedly. Really, it has been coming a long while before it manifests itself. A little hard thinking will show that you plainly asked for the trouble. No doubt, it was something you could have avoided. Your eyes are your weak point so take care of your eyes. You may suffer from some kind of eye disease after the age of 35.

Hobbies

Your leisure moments must be spent in a manner fitting to your temperament. Seeing that you value refinement and comforts, you do not care for rough or strenuous games. You like the company of others and you seek the bright-spots of life. Card-playing, probably, tempts you, but it has no attractions unless money stakes are involved. And, here, it may be well to warn you against gambling. If allowed, it might take a strong hold on you.

Love Matters

In love matters, you are just as vigorous as you are in work and play. Once you fall in love, you want to be in the company of your intended-one every available minute of the time. You are too wise to neglect your work. But, once the work is accomplished you will hurry off to trysting-place to keep the appointment. When marriage is an accomplished fact, you will want to rule the home. The ruling will not be done, necessarily in an aggressive manner, it will certainly be efficient. If you are a woman, you often help your husband in his business affairs and this you perform with marked efficiency.

Finance

You will have many ups and downs in money matters, but chiefly owing to your own rashness and in attempting enterprises beyond your power of execution. You would make a successful company promoter, preacher, orator or organiser. You will always have the ability to make money but at the same time you are likely to make bitter enemies in the course of your business. You will be under good conditions for making money in business, industry or enterprise, and you will have many opportunities of amassing wealth if you keep control over your strong-willed disposition, which at times will be inclined to wreck your good fortune by causing expensive litigation and powerful enemies to rise in your path. So, you should try to develop tact in the handling of individuals and avoiding disputes.

Education

You will be known for your exceptional speaking skills and your communication skills will help you shine amongst your peers for a long time. You will become smart and your memory will become sharp, due to which you will be able to remember anything easily for a long time. This special aspect of your personality will help you achieve success in your studies. You will also develop an interest in learning various things about religious scriptures. You will prove your excellence by spreading dominance over subjects like Mathematics, Statistics and Logic. You are gifted the virtue of analyzing things in a detailed manner which can very soon turn into a vice. field.

Bhava Phala

A birth chart of a native comprises of 12 segments, each denoting the different aspects of a human life. These segments are known as houses or Bhavas. The 12 signs of the zodiac find a place in each of these 12 houses in an arranged manner. And the Lord of that particular sign becomes the house Lord of the house that it is posited in. Each House Lord residing in different houses and the impact of all the planets along with the impact of the houses defines the various shades of life the native would have to go through.

Personality, Health, Status

The fifth house indicates our creative and intellectual ability. From this house, we can gauge or judge the mental faculty and its various processes. The 5th house also governs our scholastic background and performance. This house rules over progeny and related matters. Past life actions and their results in this lifetime are seen from this house. Our capacity to engage in chanting and other ritualistic activities are seen from this house.

Your lagna lord in 5th house is an indication of you as an intelligent and erudite personality. You will be studious and academic in nature and will be well-read and knowledgeable. You will have deep insights into scriptures. This position of the lagna lord in this house indicates great interest in chanting, recitation of sacred texts and engagement in religious rituals. Also called the house of Purva Punya, 5th house indicates the accumulation of merits/demerits over past lives and the portion you are entitled to in this lifetime. As a house of creativity, this house indicates your capacity for procreation and also shows your involvement with our children. The lord of self in this particular house also indicates the flow of creative energies contained within. These creative energies pertain exclusively to the mental faculty. Visualization and creative expression pertain to this 5th house. The presence of your lord of 1st house in the 5th indicates your association with writing and editing, composition, content development and expression of thoughts into words. This house is also concerned with your power of concentration and focus.

Wealth, Family, Properties

The placement of 2nd house lord in the 3rd is an expansion of the significations pertaining to the second house. It also augurs well for matters pertaining to the 3rd house. Here, the family resources in terms of money and time are focused and geared towards the growth and development of youngsters in the family, especially your siblings. Your family may also be involved very deeply in the affairs of your younger siblings. Their growth, educational endeavours and achievements will be particularly appreciated. Focus will be given more to the advancement and empowerment of the youngsters, and their perspectives and viewpoints will be given weightage. This position also indicates the expansion of the concept of your family to include neighbours, peers, extended family and friends as a big group. This shows regular family engagement and collaborations, and indicates get-togethers and gatherings during family functions or entertainment events. This position also denotes constant changes that your family undergoes in terms of structure, functions and resources. It shows that your family may be undergoing evolution in its perspectives and approach, and adapting to modern thoughts and ideas, more in tune with the advancements in the rest of the world. It connotes enhancement of your communication skills, versatile nature and also involvement of your family members in artistic or intellectual activities. The position of your 2nd lord in 3rd house indicates you as a well-developed and articulate personality.

Siblings, Courage

The 12th house and lord are oriented towards enlightenment, loss, abandonment, seclusion and separation. When your 3rd lord is in 12th house, you may feel a lack of siblings or friends. You may be denied younger siblings or they may be separated from you. Your co-borns will thrive when they move away from their native place or place of birth. The friends you have in your life will gradually decline or disappear or you cannot sustain much interest in their companionship. There can also be a sense of alienation. But this is a good combination for long distance relationship and friendships. As the 12th house denotes far away places including foreign regions and people, you might cultivate and sustain association that are rooted in physical separation. Since the 12th house is concerning with evolution and enlightenment, your 3rd lord when placed in it finds it difficult to maintain concrete drive and initiative towards any hobby or intellectual interest it pursues. But if your pursuits revolve around the 12th house matters such as spirituality / mysticism, meditation and charity, you will not only sustain interest, but also progress. Since the 12th also pertains to cultures and practices that are foreign to your own, you may develop inclination towards these. Though your 3rd lord in 12th may find movement and coordination curtailed, where it concerns foreign travel or retreats or pilgrimages, you may find it beneficial. Since the 12th house is also concerned with seclusion and withdrawal into self, the 3rd lord's impeded / curtailed movement can lead towards meditation or enlightenment in seclusion. Both the 3rd and 12th signify diametrically opposite movements. Your 3rd lord goes external in search of mental stimulation, and your 12th lord is inward bound resulting in cessation of all mental stimulation.

Happiness, Education, House, Mother, Property

A lord in own house is powerful and the house with own lord is secure and feels fortified. Your 4th lord in 4th house implies your strong home base. Your home is your strength and your home identifies itself with you. Both you and your home derive positivity from each other. This also implies the significant role of mother in one's home. She will be the centre of focus for each and every family member. She will be like a pillar of strength and keep the home members united. This also indicates your mother's unflinching support for you. The position of 4th lord in 4th house points to your total engagement and involvement in home and related matters. For you, your home is a living entity, more than a structure of four walls, ceiling and floor. Though this is an emotional bonding, your home also gives your material security. You will be interested in accumulating fixed assets, including land and residential property. Very early in life, you would have acquired property or be involved in each and every process of construction and building of your home. You will also enjoy the comfort of luxurious vehicles. This position indicates your role as the nurturer and provider of your home. You are committed to making life comfortable for you, your mother and others at home. The placement of 4th lord in 4th home also indicates your strong emotional personality. Your feelings will have depth, and your emotional expressions will be rich. You will never ever display emotional poverty.

Children, Mind, Intelligence

Your 5th lord is your intellect and your 3rd house represents innumerable ways in which your intellect can be constructively and creatively employed, occupied and utilized. The 3rd house signifies your mental inclination, co-borns, peer group, colleagues, friends and neighbours. This placement conveys great bonding with peers and siblings. It indicates the various methods through which you expand your reach in the external world. People would always find you surrounded by friends or peer group and engaged in activities of mutual interest. Since the 3rd house is a house of 'desire', nothing is enough for your mind. You need constant mental stimulation and will have plenty of it, and still be left wanting more. Wherever you are, you will form a group or network of people to engage in recreation and hobbies. The 3rd house, per se, does not encourage solo or individual involvement in hobbies and pastimes. Moreover, when counted from the 5th house, the 3rd house will be 11th place. The eleventh house expands, magnifies, enlarges and multiplies. And so will be the case with your mind. It will enlarge its vision, capacity and performance by active external associations and interactions. The activities and engagements can either have intellectual leanings or entertainment objective. Your deep involvement with various set of people in multiple programme of activities will be an exhilarating and invigorating exercise with promise of heavy adrenaline-rush. Whether mentally, geographically, physically, emotionally or spiritually, this combination shows that you will be ever-ready to get-set-go.

Diseases, Debt, Enemies

The 5th house informs us of our accumulated merits as well as debts of the past lifetimes, while the 6th house indicates about the debts of this birth. These debts can be in the form of any unfortunate incidents or suffering that we may have to experience or undergo in this lifetime. They can also result in personal physical deficiency or afflictions related to the mind. The 6th lord's position here in 5th house does not portend well for significations pertaining to the 5th house. It can mean that you will be denied happiness from progeny. It is also possible that your progeny will be a great source of stress, strain and terrible mental tension to you. It can even mean that your progeny may suffer from some affliction or tragedy, which might be a source of pain for you. Since the 6th lord is placed in the 12th from its house, this can result in the loss of some aspects related to 6th house. It can indicate loss of your aggression or confrontationist attitude. Your approach towards anything materialistic will be least aggressive. This position shows that you will not engage in hard labour or arduous undertaking for the sake of acquiring wealth. In fact, your mind as denoted by 5th house will be weighed down by the load of the 6th lord that the 'goal of aggressive pursuit and forceful acquisition of anything' will be entirely lost. The 6th house also represents your mother's siblings. Since the 6th lord is getting connected to an auspicious trinal 5th house, your uncles and aunts may show special favour on you. Due to this combination, you even stand to gain materially.

Marriage, Partner

Your 5th house informs about your mind, intellectual expansion and creative expression. The 7th house is concerned with the role and impact of 'significant other' in your life. This 'other' can be your marital partner, live-in partner or business associate. When the 7th lord influences your 5th house, it indicates your mental involvement and engagement with 7th house matters. Since the 7th lord goes to the 11th house from its own, it indicates gain for significations pertaining to 7th house. Since your mind is constantly stimulated with the 7th house, you will naturally find multiple ways to enhance your 7th house. The 7th house is located 3rd from the 5th house, and so the mind (5th house) is experiencing positive change and stimulation (the 3rd house channel) via the intimate and personal relationships (7th house). It is possible that you increasingly think about sex and sexual relationships, since your mind is associated with a 'house of desire'. You will think of numerous ways to entertain your spouse through recreational activities, fun and travel. This indicates that your life partner or spouse is gaining through the additional attention bestowed on them. It can also indicate your business partner influencing your thinking style and creativity. Or it is possible that your spouse is enhancing your creative thinking processes which is directly empowering your profession and work. The placement of the 7th lord in 5th also shows the intellectual stimulation you get out of your work, which encourages you to invest more efforts, thereby helping in advancements in your career. Since your 5th house is related to your progeny, this position implies positive benefits for your spouse from your progeny. Your spouse and progeny may share a mutually beneficial vibration.

Longevity, Danger, Difficulties

Your 3rd house craves change, and your 8th house thrusts change. Both these houses deal with changes in your life, the only difference being that the 3rd house changes are voluntary, whereas the 8th houses changes are willed by destiny. The 3rd house deals with your courage, stamina, siblings, peers and recreational interests. The 8th house represents the unexpected events and happenings that threaten to destroy our relationships and resources. When your 8th lord occupies the 3rd house, it is placed in the 8th from its own house. This can lead to some unpredictable events concerning your 3rd house relationships. It is possible that your relationship with your siblings may end in an unexpected way. You may terminate a long-standing friendship with your peer group or neighbour in an abrupt manner. This placement does not augur well for the health of your siblings too. It can also imply absence of siblings or lack of love or affection from this quarter. This combination also conveys unexpected changes to your lifestyle concerning recreation and hobbies. Since the 3rd house also represents movements, the 8th lord's disruptive influence can stall your movements. It can mean that you may be injured in accidents or in some mishaps that can create obstacles for your free physical movement. It indicates problems related physical paralysis, signifying danger to body movements. The 8th lord indicates chronic afflictions, and its influence on the 3rd house can put sudden end to existing communication styles and mental enjoyment patterns. This can also mean mental imbalance or transformation in existing thought processes.

Luck, Father, inheritance etc.

The 4th house is pertains to our emotional world and revolves around our home, mother and other people associated with home. The 9th house is our window to the intellectual world of higher learning, awareness and knowledge and indicates one's father, elders, mentors, teachers, guides and institutions of learning. In the 4th house, you feel and absorb various experiences. In the 9th house, you reflect and assimilate various facts. The 4th house enables journeying within for knowledge about yourself. The 9th house facilitates explorations and widening of mental and intellectual horizons. Both houses deal with power - the 4th informs about internal power that comes with deep meditation and the 9th indicates power of learning and cultivation of goodness in attracting divine grace. When your 9th lord is placed in the 4th house, it goes to the 8th from its own house. This indicates transformation in the 9th lord while under influence of the 4th house. As a house of 'Dharma', your 9th house promotes strict judgements and a 'no-compromise' attitude towards traditional mores and social codes. In the 4th house which considers everyone and everything with compassionate lens, your 9th lord is transformed into a 'considerate judge' and takes pains to balance 'righteous thinking and kindness.' It is possible that your religious and cultural perspectives may be softly coloured with flexibility and openness towards change. You may lean heavily in favour of traditions and culture practices followed by your matrilineal family. This also indicates the dominant role played by your mother. It also indicates transformation of your good fortune in favour of your home and members, so that the 4th house matters thrive well.

Profession

The 4th and the 10th houses have been allotted diametrically opposite portfolios. The orientation and interests are also different. While the 4th house deals with your personal world of home, happiness, mother and material assets, the 10th house is chiefly concerned with professional aspirations and ambition pertaining to success in the world outside. The 4th house is coloured with your emotions, whereas the 10th house is very impersonal in nature. When your 10th lord occupies your 4th house, it is placed in the 7th house from its own. This indicates that your home become a chief base from where your professional activities are carried out. It implies the connection between your personal and professional world. You may feel comfortable operating from your home. It is possible that you may have an office set-up at home. It can even mean that you may be associated with your home members in your professional life. Chances of you partnering with your mother or any home members in business ventures are also indicated. It is highly possible that your professional outlook may be influenced by your 4th house significations. You may be more emotional in your work life and may prefer a personal touch in your professional dealings. It can even mean that you may be exhibiting comparatively low ambition or competitiveness in your professional perspective. This combination also indicates that you may be working as a freelancer or having your own home-based consultancy. This placement also denotes your professional involvement in real estate either as a dealer or agent in property, or as a sales or marketing professional in construction/building industry.

Income, Gain

The 3rd house informs about your courage, initiative, mental inclination, co-borns and peers. The 11th house is related to gains, elder siblings, achievements and enjoyment. Both these houses belong to the 'Kama' group of houses oriented towards desire. When your 11th lord is placed in the 3rd house, it occupies the 5th from its own house. This placement encourages deep engagement and involvement in recreational pursuits and interests. Under the influence of the 11th lord, your 3rd house significations expand and widen their scope. It indicates close affinity between your siblings. It is also possible that you will have more siblings. Besides bonds of affection, your siblings may also share similar intellectual interests. This can mean that your elder siblings are both friends as well as good role models for your younger siblings. This combination indicates a smooth communication and deep understanding among the elders and youngsters in your family. This placement indicates that the recreational interests and hobbies of your siblings or friends will be more intellectual in nature than entertaining. It suggests your association with peers acquiring a deep intellectual tone, even if it was initiated over a small hobby. The presence of 11th lord in 3rd house also serves to increase your valour, efforts and courage. You will take more initiative in your life. It connotes increase in movements, which can indicate frequent travel. Your heightened sense of adventure will take you towards pursuits such as scuba diving, paragliding, white water rafting, surfing, rock climbing etc. The thrill offered by adventure and engagement in daring acts will infuse you with an adrenaline rush, the stimulation afforded by this combination.

Expenditure, Moksha

The 5th house informs about your mental capacities and academic abilities. The 12th house indicates dissolution of all acquired knowledge and intelligence. The 5th house engages in thinking, analysis, rationalization and creation. In the 12th house, there is total surrender to a higher source of wisdom. Your 12th lord's placement in the 5th house indicates that the 12th lord has gone to the 6th from own house. This placement indicates a struggle between the rational mind which insists on reasoning and logic, and the self which has gone beyond questions and answers. The 12th lord accepts and believes, whereas the 5th house prods and ponders. The 12th house is detached in its outlook, while the 5th house conducts a rigorous examination of things and people. Though this combination will create initial difficulties, your 5th house will undergo major transformation while struggling to decipher the mystery of the 12th lord. The ease with which the 12th house accepts the 'sense of loss' with detached outlook is difficult for the 5th house which signifies your 'intellectual pride.' Under the influence of the 12th lord, the 5th house representing the mind learns to understand that life is a mixture of gray and not to be viewed in simple 'black' and 'white' frameworks. Since the 12th lord is disruptive in nature, your academic or educational life may be disturbed or face unexpected troubles. It is possible that you may 'neglect' your scholastic goals, resulting in your poor performance. It can even mean that you may be detached and not very rigid in your thinking. Your procreative abilities may also suffer, and you may either choose not to have progeny or this signification of the 5th house will be denied to you.

Kalsarp Dosh/ Yog - Kalsarp Remedies

Kalsarp Yog is not present.

As per the popular definition, when all planets are situated in between Rahu and Ketu in birth-chart or horoscope, the astrologers call it Kalsarp Dosh. In present days, discussions about this dosh are vogue among Jyotishi or Hindu Astrologers of India. Many of troubles in one's life are attributed to Kalsarp Dosh. Without analyzing other areas of astrology, most astrologers, in fact, accept Kalsarp dosh as main root of problems. But the reality is this that if all planets are well posited in horoscope, Kalsarp dosh will not be harmful, and can be supportive to beneficial results endowed by good positions of planets. Kalsarp dosh is inauspicious only when positions of other planets are unfavorable in one's horoscope.

Therefore, it is not wise to fear hearing just about 'Kalsarp Dosh'. It is in fact always better to reach on remedies only after consulting jyotishi for deep analysis on negative influences of Kalsarp dosh. Interestingly, influence of kalsarp dosh is different in different people. Because influence of kalsarp dosh is based on points-which sign is posited in which house, and what other planets occupied that house, what are their influences and so on.

Ishta Devata

Worshiping your Ishta Deva leads to worldly success and liberation. As per your birth chart, your Ishta Deva: Lord Brahma and Ayyappa.

Lord Brahma and Ayyappa

Ishta Devata: Who and Why?

Moksha is a concept associated with the birth and rebirth cycle, and Vedic Astrology defines the attainment of moksha as the only purpose in life for every human being. Our Ishta Devata or chosen deity is the one whom we pray to, and who can guide us to our true purpose - salvation. Ishta Devata, literally translates to 'the favored deity' whom we worship, and is the higher power, whom we connect with spiritually. He/She guides us through life, helping us live a fulfilling and protected life, and then finally directing us into leaving the cycle of rebirth behind to experience of oneness with the One Supreme Self. Unlike our Kul Devata, the Ishta Devata is unique for every individual, and can be easily discovered through our birth chart. As per astrology, one should definitely worship their specific Ishta Devata. The rituals behind the veneration of your chosen deity are rather easy to follow and are mainly based on the chanting of mantras pertaining to them.

How To Find Your Chosen Deity (Ishta Devata)

The knowledge about one's Ishta Devata can easily be discovered through the Atmakaraka in Navamsa in our birth charts. The Atmakaraka is the planet with the highest degree in our kundli. The Navamsa, on the other hand, is the ninth division in our birth chart, that signifies Dharma and thereby is also known as the Dharma-amsa. The Atmakaraka in one's Navamsa is called the Karakamsa and the twelfth house or sign from it pertains to our Ishta Devata. The planets posited in this house determine our chosen deity, however, if this house is empty then the Lord of the house is taken as the significator. Every planet pertains to a certain deity who has to be worshipped.

Remedies

Remedies are like treatment of yourself to avoid malefic effects of planets and to improve good effect of positive planets according to your horoscope. If you are sick, you consult medical practitioner. What he does? He first checks your bodily symptoms and then ask for conducting some test to investigate root cause of problem. Thereafter, he prescribes you some medicines and also tells about some precautions. Similarly, an astrologer first sees your bodily symptoms, then he analyses your chart in depth and find out root cause of your sufferings and thereafter he suggests some remedies (as medicines) and also tells you about some do's and don'ts (precautions). Therefore, remedial measures always help you overcoming most of your worries and issues pertaining to different walks of your life.

Shad Bala & Bhav Bala Tables

Shadbala is a method in Vedic astrology that gives quick insight in the strength of planets and the houses. 'Shad' in Sanskrit means 'Six' and hence Shadbala consists of 6 different sources of strength. Shadbala calculation is a laborious process but thanks to computers one can get these strength calculations by just one mouse click. Shadbala method gives a value to each planet and each house. The more points a planet and a house gets in Shadbala the stronger it is.

Western Chart

Western Aspects

What is an Aspect

Aspect is an angular distance measured in degree and minute of celestial longitude between two points in the zodiac. Unlike Vedic Astrology Aspects, Western Aspects are grouped into good and evil. Results of good aspects are good, as these aspects symbolize progress and harmony. If two celestial bodies form good aspects, these bodies collaborate and produce positive results, as per Western Astrology. If the difference of the longitudes is exact, the aspect is considered strong or having more weightage. Though in real world we rarely see the exact aspects and an Orb is used to calculate till what difference the aspect will still apply. Orb is an allowance of so many degrees on either side of an exact aspect.

Here are the aspects, their weightage and orb that we have calculated -

Abbr-Aspect	Degree	Orb	Weight	Abbr-Aspect	Degree	Orb	Weight
CONJ-CONJUNCTION	0	15	10	OPPN-OPPOSITION	180	15	10
TRIN-TRINE	120	6	3	SQUR-SQUARE	90	6	3
SEXT-SEXTILE	60	6	3	SSQU-SEMI SQUARE	45	1	1
NONL-NONILE	40	1	1	QUIN-QUINLILE	72	1	1
SQQD-SESQUIQUADRATE	135	1	1	QUIN-QUINCUNC	150	1	1

Note

The table specifies the aspect if it exists and the weight. Weight of the aspect denotes strength of the aspect.

Yogini Dasha Predictions

In the field of Vedic Astrology, where Vimshottari Dasha is considered to be most significant, there Yogini Dasha also has its particular relevance. Many learned astrologers make use of Yogini Dasha in addition to Vimshottari Dasha because doing so brings forward better results and it helps in predictions as well. The Vimshottari Dashas are of the nine planets (navagraha), and their duration is of 120 years. On the other hand, there are a total of eight Yogini Dashas, and they span a length of 36 years, after which they restart. Each Yogini Dasha has a lord planet, namely:

Mangala (Moon)

Total duration of 1 year

Pingala (Sun)

Total duration of 2 years

Dhanya (Jupiter)

Total duration of 3 years

Bhramari (Mars)

Total duration of 4 years

Bhadrika (Mercury)

Total duration of 5 years

Ulka (Saturn)

Total duration of 6 years

Siddha (Venus)

Total duration of 7 years

Sankata (Rahu)

Total duration of 8 years

Thus, beginning with the birth of a native, each of these 8 Yogini Dashas influences the person for a total of 36 years. Once this duration is complete, the Yogini Dasha from their birth emerges again, and once more, this process is repeated.

As each of these Dashas and their duration differs, thus, their results vary too. Let us discover the effects of a Yogini Dasha on you:

Mangala (Moon) Yogini Dasha

During this Dasha, you will have the privilege of participating in many religious programs and your mind will move towards purity. You will attain prosperity and affluence will become an integral part of your life. Various yogas indicating attainment of clothes, jewellery, comforts, facilities, fame, and honour will be formed.

Moreover, you can also organise an auspicious function at home in this duration. Auspiciousness will become a part of you in this Dasha, and all your problems will be resolved. Not only will your health improve, but there will also be an increase in your name and fame. You can also find a loyal and courteous life partner or become a parent to obedient and fortunate children.

Pingala (Sun) Yogini Dasha

Some problems may arise during this Dasha, for natives. You will be prone to mental stress and physical sufferings. If other yogas are present in the kundali, then there are possibilities of heart disease during this time. Simultaneously, health problems due to heat or accidents and fire-related problems may also trouble you. However, with the help of an elder or a senior, you will attain success in your work. Keeping the wrong company at this time can result in a loss of your honour and fame. Yet, on the other hand, you will get skilled in business and attain relief from troubles and tribulations. The pleasure of power may also be on the cards for some. Thus, on the whole, this Dasha will bring mixed results for you.

Dhanya (Jupiter) Yogini Dasha

During this Dasha, you can attain happiness in various forms, sufficient wealth, and good health. Moreover, there will be an increase in your prosperity, and you may also earn more fame. Married people will lead a happier married life, while unmarried natives may get proposals for marriage. Awards and glory from the government are probable, so are the chances of going on a pilgrimage. You will become more inclined towards religion, and during this time, wealth and fortune in your life will increase.

Bhramari (Mars) Yogini Dasha

During this Dasha, you may have to face some troubles or difficulties. There will be yogas indicating travelling from one place to another. Not only will these trips be numerous, but some may even be unnecessary. The latter will not bring any exclusive benefits for you, and you may even lose money as a result of them. Urgent work can take you far from your home, and there can also be a decrease in your name and fame at this time. Therefore, you need to pay special attention to your work and ensure that they do not bring any problems for you.

Bhadrika (Mercury) Yogini Dasha

During this Dasha, prosperity will be a part of your life, and you will also spend your family life in a much better way. Your friend circle will grow, and you will get a chance to spend time with them. Business people will attain tremendous profits and will also receive many comforts and amenities.

Ulka (Saturn) Yogini Dasha

During this Dasha, predictions indicate possibilities of an accident (transport) or loss of money. One of your vehicles can get stolen, or your child may face some problems. If you did something unlawful in the past, then troubles, punishment, and/or a penalty from the government sector may find you during this time. There is a possibility of some stress in your family life. Moreover, you will also be prone to ear, tooth, foot, heart, and abdominal diseases in this period. Therefore, you need to stay alert towards your health and not do anything that may lead to defamation or loss of money.

Siddha (Venus) Yogini Dasha

During this Dasha, you will receive numerous good news, and your desires will be fulfilled. Monetary profits and good luck will be a part of your life. Not only will you attain affluence and fame, but you will also be very fortunate in terms of wealth, learning, and prosperity. Your health will favour you during this time, and there are high chances of you buying different types of gems, jewellery, and other expensive items. On the whole, you will be delighted during this Dasha.

Sankata (Rahu) Yogini Dasha

During this Dasha, you will have to remain cautious, because you may have to face some trouble or crisis at this time. Essential tasks may get interrupted, and there will also be possibilities of monetary loss. In addition to this, some of your significant schemes may also get disrupted. Along with that, this Dasha also brings the probability of health problems for you. If you are already running sick, then you especially need to pay attention to your wellbeing at this time.

Arudha Chart

Arudha Chart is an important chart in astrology. Sage Parashar has given much importance to Arudha Chart and also Astrologers who use Jaimini Astrology, also believe in Arudha Chart, thus, it is a very important chart as like Birth chart. The difference between the two is Birth Chart shows our self and Arudha Chart shows our image in the society. So to read Arudha Chart before giving predictions, is using a better technique of predictions which gives accurate readings.
